Meet our Grand Marshal Darkhorse Marine veteran Michael Spivey

Michael is a combat injured Marine and Purple Heart recipient, with deployments to both Iraq and Afghanistan. While deployed to Afghanistan in December of 2010, an IED blast left Michael with burns, shrapnel wounds, spinal injuries and ultimately the loss of his left elbow and hand. He was medically retired in 2012. After his injury Michael began snowboarding, has been active with Adaptive Action Sports and is now World Ranked in both Boarder Cross and Banked Slalom. He together with his wife Kris will be running the 10K, and be on hand at the Team Darkhorse booth afterward to greet runners.

Meet the Marines, and explore military vehicles, equipment and weaponry, at the Expo following the race.
